Numb. 5132

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 23. to Saturday June 27. 1713.

Kenſington, June 25.

THE following Addreſs from the South-Sea Company, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Directors of the ſaid Company; being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, Trading to the South Seas, and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fiſhery, at their general Court held the 18th of June, 1713.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE ſhould be wanting in our Duty to Your Majeſty, if we did not, with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude, acknowledge the great Advantages to the Nation, and to our ſelves in particular, in the ample Proviſion made by Your Goodneſs, and the wiſe Conduct of Your Miniſtry, for the ſatisfying the Publick Debts, by the Eſtabliſhment of this Corporation.

And we do with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs, accept the Royal Marks of Your Favour, in preſenting us with the Licenſe from the King of Spain, for Two Ships of Six hundred Tons each, to go to the Spaniſh Weſt Indies with Goods and Merchandizes; and the Contract which Your Majeſty out of Your Princely Care for the Trade and Welfare of Your Subjects, has been pleaſed to make with his Catholick Majeſty for the Aſſiento, with Priviledges beyond what any former Aſſentiſts ever enjoy'd.

And we moſt humbly aſſure Your Majeſty of our beſt Endeavours to improve them, as may be moſt for Your Honour, the Publick Advantage, and the Encouragement of the Manufactures of Great Britain, eſteeming Your Gracious Inclination to us (whereof we have had ſo many Inſtances) to be the ſureſt Foundation for our Proſperity.

We humbly crave Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty, upon the happy Concluſion of a long-expected and deſired Peace.

And we ſhall gladly embrace all Opportunities to Demonſtrate the profoundeſt Duty and Loyalty to Your Sacred Perſon and Government, and Zeal for the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

May Your Majeſty's Reign be long and Proſperous, always Bleſſed with a Wiſe and Faithful Miniſtry, and a Loyal and Obedient People.

And as a Mark of Her Royal Favour, Her Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Samuel Ongley, Chriſtopher Desbouverie and John Williams, Eſqrs. Directors of the ſaid Company.

The following Addreſs from the City of Winchester, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Mayor of that City; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of Your Majeſty's ancient City of Winchester.

Moſt Gracious and Dread Sovereign!

WE humbly beg leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Succeſs, in Your obtaining a glorious Peace, after a long and expenſive War, and for ſecuring the Proteſtant Religion and Succeſſion, as by Law Eſtabliſhed, and the perfect Friendſhip between Your Majeſty and the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, to the great Satisfaction of all Your Majeſty's Subjects.

Madam,

You have been a glorious Defender of the Chriſtian Faith, and the Maintainer and Upholder of the Proteſtant Religion, whereby Your Majeſty hath gained a Name, that will laſt with great Renown, ſo long as the Sun and Moon endure.

And that Your Majeſty may long ſit upon the Throne, and enjoy the Benefit, and reap the Fruit of that Peace, which Your Majeſty hath procured for Your Kingdoms and Your Allies, and that after a long and proſperous Reign here, You may at laſt be crowned with an eternal Weight of Glory, are the hearty Prayers of us, Your Majeſty's moſt humble, loyal and obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the City of Carliſle, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Chriſtopher Muſgrave; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, Principal Secretary of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carliſle, in the County of Cumberland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, do moſt humbly Congratulate Your Majeſty for the honourable and advantageous Peace which Your Majeſty hath given to Your Subjects, after a long, bloody and expenſive War, and many Difficulties and Impediments at home.

Having had great Experience of Your Royal Care and Concern for the preſent and future Good of Your Kingdoms; we do not doubt of the good Conſequences of the Peace, ſince the ſame is entirely an effect of the Wiſdom and Conduct of Your Majeſty and Your Councils.

The

The legal Proviſion of the Succeſſion of Your Majeſty's Crown in the Proteſtant Line, and Your Majeſty's gracious and repeated Aſſurances touching the ſame, leave no ground of Suſpicion of Your Majeſty's good and ſincere Intentions in that Particular, and we entirely confide therein.

Your Majeſty's Reign hath been ſo great an Example of a good and gracious Government, that we cannot propoſe to our ſelves any addition of Happineſs in another Reign, and therefore we ſhall ever pray for Your Majeſty's Health, and long and proſperous Reign over us.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Lyme Regis, in the County of Dorſet, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Burridge, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, Freemen, and other principal Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's antient Borough of Lyme Regis, in the County of Dorſet.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg leave with the greateſt Thankfulneſs, to acknowledge the great Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's wiſe and gracious Government.

As Divine Providence hath made Your Majeſty's Reign Illuſtrious by glorious Succeſſes in War, ſo we preſume that it will be no ſmall addition to the Glory thereof, that through Your Majeſty's tender regard to Your People's Welfare, Your Sacred Majeſty has obtained an honourable Peace for them, by putting an end to a bloody and expenſive War, the Fruits of which, we entirely hope, will be (together with the great Bleſſing of Peace) the reſtoration of Trade and Commerce, to the general Advantage of all Your Majeſty's Subjects.

We alſo moſt gratefully acknowledge Your Majeſty's pious Care to tranſmit our Religion and Liberties to Poſterity, by ſecuring the Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

May the GOD of Peace Crown all Your Majeſty's Endeavours, for the Good of Your People, with deſired Succeſs, and that Your Majeſty may have a long and proſperous Reign here, and obtain an immortal Crown of Glory hereafter is, and ſhall be the hearty and conſtant Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Saltaſh, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir William Carew, Bart. and Jonathan Elford, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, Miniſter, Town Clerk, and other Inhabitants of Her Majeſty's ancient and loyal Dutchy Borrough of Saltaſh, in the County of Cornwall.

PERMIT us, moſt gracious Sovereign, amongſt the Crowds of Your Majeſty's other loyal and faithful Subjects, to approach Your Sacred Preſence with our moſt humble and ſincere Congratulations and Thanks to Your Majeſty, for procuring to Your People an honourable and advantageous Peace: Upon which, we have a proſpect of the return of our Navigation and Commerce, and of a ſpeedy repair of what we have ſuffer'd in a long and bloody War.

And Your Majeſty's gracious Care of confirming and perpetuating the Happineſs of Your Kingdoms, by the Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, cannot but be as ſucceſsful in quieting the Minds of all Your People at home, as Your glorious Arms have been in obtaining Peace abroad. All occaſions of pretended Fears and Jealouſies is, by this means, cut off from them who have ſo induſtriouſly ſought occaſion, and the moſt factious Spirits are ſilenced and confounded.

Your Majeſty hath long been ſucceſsful and glorious in Your Wars, which will be read with Admiration by lateſt Poſterity, and now may the everlaſting Father, the Prince of Peace, grant Your Majeſty to be longer, much longer happy, healthful, and wealthful in Peace.

The following Addreſs from Whitehaven, was Preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants, Maſters and Owners of Ships, and other Inhabitants of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AS we formerly expreſſed our entire Satisfaction, in ſeeing Your Majeſty at the Head of the Treaty of Peace (the Terms moſt wiſely Concerted, and graciouſly Communicated) ſo we now, with all Gladneſs and Thankfulneſs of Heart, preſume to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon Overcoming all Difficulties, and bringing the ſame to good Effect, notwithſtanding the Oppoſition of thoſe Abroad, who Envy the Enlargement of the Britiſh Commerce, and the artful Contrivances of Factious and Unreaſonable Men at Home, to Obſtruct it.

And as Your Majeſty is entirely poſſeſſed of the Hearts and Affections of all Your good Subjects (as appears by the Reſolves and Addreſſes of a truly Britiſh Parliament) ſo Your Sacred Perſon and Government, and our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, can ſtand in no need of any Foreign Guarantees for better Security.

What You have done, Moſt Gracious Sovereign! for the Security of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the perfect Friendſhip there is betwixt Your Majeſty and the Houſe of Hanover, gives us alſo a moſt agreeable Satisfaction to find the ſame Impotent Faction diſappointed in their wicked Deſigns, of dividing Your Majeſty and that Illuſtrious Family.

What remains then more for us, but as moſt Dutiful, Loyal, and Obliged Subjects, to beg of the Divine Providence (the Almighty Governor of the World, and Protector of good Princes,) That Your Majeſty may long, long live to enjoy the Bleſſings, and ſee the Fruits of that Advantageous Peace You have procured, and ſo much labour'd for, and we the Happineſs of being always Govern'd by ſo Gracious, ſo Pious, and ſo Indulgent a QUEEN.

The following Addreſs from the County of Angleſey and Borough of Beaumaris, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Hon. Henry Bertie, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament fo the ſaid Borough; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bulkeley.

To

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Custos Rotulorum, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Angleſey; and alſo of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Bewmaris.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

YOUR Majeſty's great Succeſſes and Wiſdom in choice of Your Councils, directed by Your pious Diſpoſitions, having effected the Happineſs of Peace, is what with the higheſt Tranſport we Congratulate.

For Your continued Religious Concern for the Proteſtant Succeſſion, we beg leave to expreſs our chiefeſt Gratitude.

Our ancient Loyalty, which would never admit us to join with any Rebellious Powers againſt Your Sacred Predeceſſors, makes our Joy the more, that Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, is the only Guaranty of our Peace and Properties.

That Your Majeſty's Care to ſuppreſs the Means of promoting Factious Principles in Your People, may add to Your Majeſty's Quiet, through a long and happy Reign, is the Deſire of the Hearts of Your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Graveſend and Milton, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Jeynes, Eſq; Mayor of Graveſend, (who had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand) being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Clarendon.

To the QUEEN'S moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Graveſend and Milton.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do moſt humbly beg leave with the utmoſt Joy to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Concluſion of a Peace ſo Glorious to Your Majeſty, and ſo Advantageous to Your Own Subjects; by which the general Ballance of Power in Europe is ſo admirably well contriv'd and fix'd, and by which Your Majeſty has, with that Conſummate Wiſdom and Goodneſs, provided for the Safety and Welfare of all Your Allies; that if any of them have in the leaſt Inſtance endeavour'd to vary from Your Meaſures, they have ſoon been convinced, That they have therein ſo far departed from their own true Intereſts.

So very Extenſive is Your Majeſty's Goodneſs, that it's neither confined within the Bounds of Your Own Kingdoms, nor the Limits of Your own Life, as evidently appears from the pious Care You have taken of the Proteſtant Intereſt abroad, and by Your ſecuring to our Poſterity the Proteſtant Succeſſion at home. And it is with unſpeakable Joy that we received that Aſſurance from the Throne, of that perfect Friendſhip there is between Your Majeſty and the Houſe of Hanover: And we hope thoſe Factious and Ungrateful Men, who would make it a Merit to divide or ſeparate Your Intereſts, will for ever want the Power to attain their wicked Ends. We can never fear this or any other Dangers, ſo long as we are bleſs'd with ſo Excellent a Queen, whilſt we have ſo Loyal a Parliament, and ſo Faithful and Able a Miniſtry.

May Your Loyal Subjects long enjoy the Happineſs of Your Auſpitious Reign, and all thoſe Bleſſings You have procured for them; and may thoſe few Ungrateful Men, who cannot or will not know the Things which belong to their Peace, no longer foment that Spirit of Diſcord which they pretend only to diſcover in others. May they no longer ſhew themſelves ſo Childiſhly Froward, as to Repine and Murmur even at they know not what; but Overcome at length by their own Convictions, and Your Majeſty's exceſſive Goodneſs, bleſs the Hand which, in ſpight of themſelves, has made them Happy.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Newton, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Leigh, and John Ward, Eſqrs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. William Lord Berkeley of Stretton, Chancellor of Her Majeſty's Dutchy of Lancaſter.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Steward, Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's moſt ancient and loyal Borough of Newton, in the County Palatin of Lancaſter.

Dread Sovereign,

AMONG the reſt of Your Majeſty's Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, we beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon this joyful Occaſion, of reſtoring Peace to Your own People, and ſuch of Your Allies as were diſpoſed to accept it

We Adore the Goodneſs of GOD, who is the Author of Peace, for that he hath endow'd Your Majeſty with Wiſdom and Reſolution to effect a Work ſo great in it ſelf, and ſo grateful to Mankind, and yet encreaſed with uncommon Difficulties, and obſtructed with unnatural Oppoſition.

With thankful Hearts we receive and entertain this Invaluable Bleſſing, and chuſe rather to fear GOD and Honour Your Majeſty (as we are commanded) than diſtruſt His Providence, or queſtion the juſt Exerciſe of Your Prerogative: And we heartily pray, That this Peace may be laſting, ſince we doubt not but it will prove as advantageous to Your People, as can be deſired by a Princeſs ſo Gracious and Indulgent as Your Majeſty, who by Your Concern to Cultivate a Friendſhip with the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and to ſecure their Succeſſion to the Crown, hath given an undoubted Proof of the moſt tender and extenſive Affection to Your People.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Leſtwithiell, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. John Hill, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leſtwithiell, in the County of Cornwall.

PERMIT us (moſt Gracious Sovereign) among the reſt of Your Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, to Congratulate Your Majeſty on the Concluſion of a Peace, as Happy to Your People as Glorious to Your ſelf, of which we already find the good Effects in the Abatement of thoſe heavy Taxes we were obliged to pay for the Support of ſo long and burthenſome a War; and we reſt fully aſſured of the Enjoyment of our holy Religion as by Law Eſtabliſh'd (being every one of us conſtant Communicants in the Church of England) and of our Civil Rights and Liberties upon Your Royal Word given from the Throne, which we take to be as good a Security for

Your

Your People as, Your Majeſty is pleaſed to ſay, their Loyalty and Affections are to You: And we hope the good Underſtanding between Your Majeſty and the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, will always continue and encreaſe.

That Your Majeſty may long live to enjoy the Fruits of a Peace, You have with ſo much Difficulty procured, that all the Arts of it may be Cultivated, and all our Fellow-Subjects may ſtrive to Outvie one another in grateful Returns to Almighty GOD for his Bleſſings, and to Your Majeſty for Your Care over us, ſhall ever be our moſt earneſt and fervent Prayer.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Leverpoole, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Cleveland, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by Richard Shuttleworth, Eſq; and ſeveral Gentlemen of that County; being introduced by my Lord Berkley, Chancellor of the Dutchy of Lancaſter.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Leverpoole, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

HAVING had frequent Occaſions, through the whole Courſe of Your happy and auſpicious Reign, to Addreſs Your Majeſty for many glorious Victories obtained, which by GOD's Bleſſing have opened a Way to gain the great End You ſo piouſly aim'd at, the Eſtabliſhment of a ſafe and honourable Peace, we now humbly beg leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to expreſs our thankful Acknowledgments for the accompliſhment of that great Work.

The Difficulties and Oppoſitions that have attended the Negotiations, do only ſerve to add the greater Luſtre and Glory to the wiſe and ſteddy Conduct of Your Majeſty, and Your Miniſters in this important Affair.

The good Underſtanding that is between Your Majeſty and the Houſe of Hanover, and the Care that is taken in ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion in that Illuſtrious Family, (notwithſtanding the pernicious Attempts of Ill-deſigning Men, who have been equally Induſtrious to miſrepreſent Your good and upright Intentions to that Court, and to diſtract the Minds of Your own Subjects, by inſtilling groundleſs Fears and Jealouſies) gives us a welcome Proſpect of the continuance of our preſent happy Conſtitution in Church and State to lateſt Poſterity.

The effectual Proviſion that is made to preſerve the Ballance of Power, by ſeparating for ever the Two Crowns of France and Spain, which is done in as ſtrong and ample manner, as humane Wiſdom can contrive, deſerves the unanimous Applauſe of the preſent Age, and will be a laſting Bleſſing to future Generations.

In a grateful Senſe of theſe, and all other Advantages procured for us, we ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to cultivate the Arts of Peace, by diſcountenancing and ſuppreſſing (as much as in us lies) all the baſe Principles and vile Practices of Faction and Sedition; and as we ſincerely wiſh, that Your Majeſty's Reign may be long, peaceable and happy, ſo by the Grace of GOD we ſhall be always forward to pay that Honour and Fidelity, that inviolable Loyalty and Affection which is juſtly due to the beſt of QUEENS.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Madrid, June 12. N. S. On the 10th Inſtant, the Cortes met at the Palace, and the King having thank'd them for their Zeal and Diſpatch in finiſhing the Affairs for which they were ſummoned, diſſolved them. The Treaty of Peace with Great Britain, agreed to by the Marquis de Monteleone hath been laid before the Council of State, and the Ratification is ordered to to be prepared for his Catholick Majeſty to Sign. Monſieur Orry has had ſeveral Conferences with the moſt eminent Merchants of this Town, in order to engage them to eſtabliſh a Company for furniſhing the King with Money, as his Occaſions require, and Count Bergeick has approved of this Project. The Council of the Indies have repreſented to his Majeſty, that it would be very much for his Service, and for the Advantage of Trade, to have a Squadron ſent to New Spain; but it is not yet known what will be done in that Matter. A few Days ago the Miniſter of France, delivered a Memorial in behalf of the Merchants of that Nation in Andaluſia, upon occaſion of the Indulto laid on the Effects of the laſt Flota; and the King was pleas'd to refer the ſame to the Council, who have declar'd their Opinion, that the French have no Cauſe of Complaint upon that Account, but ought to be puniſh'd according to the Laws, which forbid any Strangers from Trading to the Spaniſh Weſt Indies. The Duke de Popoli continued at Belchile on the 6th, and the Troops under his command in their Cantonments. Letters from Cadiz bring an account, that Her Majeſty's Ships the Northumberland and Dartmouth, arrived there on the 2d, and were preparing to Sail for Great Britain. They left Sir John Jennings, with his Squadron, cleanſing at Port Mahon, in order to go to Barcelona to convoy Count Staremberg and the German Troops from thence to Italy. The Commanders of thoſe Ships gave an account, that the Algerines were very numerous at Sea, that they had landed in the Iſland of Minorca, and carried off ſome of the Inhabitants. Admiral Jennings had notice of it, and was preparing to reſent it.

Hamburg, June 27. N. S. Count Flemming. in Imitation of the Muſcovites, having form'd ſome Pretenſions on this City, the Magiſtrates have agreed with him for the Sum of One hundred thouſand Livres. The Saxons are ſtill encamp'd near Oldeſloe, and are not to march from thence till the return of their General, who is expected here in a day or two from Gottorp. Prince Menzikoff ſtill continues, with the Troops under his Command, round about Lubec, and hath demanded One hundred thouſand Crowns of that City. The Senate hath offer'd to pay him Thirty thouſand, with which which he is not content, but he has already abated ſomething of his Pretenſions. The other part of the Muſcovite Army is advanced as far as Plawe, in the Dutchy of Guſtrow, where they obſerve very good Diſcipline. Monſieur Wulfrath, a Swediſh Colonel, is arrived at Lubec, from Stockholm, with Bills of Exchange, to pay the Ranſom of Count Steinbock, and the Men that ſurrender'd themſelves with him at Tonningen. The Court of Berlin ſeems reſolv'd to uſe all ſorts of Means to oblige the King of Denmark to evacuate Holſtein. His Pruſſian Majeſty hath already writ to the Powers that are Guarantees of the Treaty of Travandal, to deſire they will take proper Meaſures for that purpoſe, and in caſe they don't think fit to engage in it, it is ſaid he will himſelf demand Satisfaction of the King of Denmark, for all the Loſſes of the Inhabitants of Holſtein, and at the ſame time preſs him to quit that Dutchy. It is not known what regard the Danes will have to his Inſtances: Thoſe of ſeveral other Princes have hitherto been without any effect, and his Daniſh Majeſty is preparing to maintain himſelf there againſt all Oppoſition, till the Concluſion of a Peace. The King of Pruſſia hath ſent Orders to his Troops that were marching towards the Upper Rhine, not to proceed any further. This is attributed to ſome Expreſſions in a Letter he received from Prince Eugene of Savoy, which his Majeſty reſents.

Bruſſels, June 29. N. S. Laſt Night Count Tilly, Commander in chief of the Dutch Forces, received an Expreſs from Lieutenant-General Coliar with Advice, that the Troops appointed to be in Garriſon at Luxembourg had taken Poſſeſſion of that Fortreſs on the 26th; General Tilly being only ordered to ſtay here till he had an Account of the Evacuation of that Place by the French, went this Morning towards Maſtricht. To Morrow the Earl of Orrery intends to ſet out for Great Britain.

Utrecht, June 30. N. S. On the 27th Count Tarouca, firſt Plenipotentiary of Portugal, ſet out from hence towards the Hague. Mr. Wich, Her Majeſty's Envoy-Extraordinary in the Lower-Saxony, is arrived here in his way to Great Britain. This Morning Count Maffey, Miniſter of the Duke of Savoy, was in Conference with the Lord Privy Seal, as was likewiſe ſoon after Monſieur Buys, one of the Plenipotentiaries of the States-General.

Hague, July 1. N. S. The States are come to a Reſolution to pay off all the hired Troops to the firſt of July, at which time they are to be diſcharged from their Service. Count Tarouca, Plenipotentiary of Portugal, arrived here from Utrecht on the 28th, and was the ſame Day in Conference with the Earl of Strafford, and the Day after with the Deputies of the States-General. The Earl of Strafford, ſince his return hither, has had ſeveral Conferences with the Deputies of the States and the Grand Penſionary, as likewiſe with Monſieur d'Ahlfeldt, Miniſter of the King of Denmark, in relation to the Affairs of the North. Yeſterday Morning the States received an Account, that their Troops under the Command of General Coliar had taken Poſſeſſion of Luxembourg. Advice is come from Paris, that the Trenches before Landau were opened on the 22d Inſtant, but the Letters from Germany make no mention of it.

Whitehall, June 26. Her Majeſty has been pleaſed to Conſtitute the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Plimouth, Lord Lieutenant of the County Palatine of Cheſter.

The Commiſſioners appointed to take in Tickets and deliver out ſtanding Orders in lieu thereof in the Claſs Lottery for the Year 1712, give Notice, That they will deliver out Orders for all Tickets which have been entred before them for Orders in the ſaid Claſs Lottery to the 31*ſt of May laſt inclusive, on Monday the* 29*th Inſtant, at* 9 in the Forenoon; and that they will continue the Work of giving out ſuch Orders daily and every Day, till Saturday the 4*th of July next inclusive: Therefore all Perſons having Tickets by them, not yet entred for Orders, either in the Claſs or the* 10*l. Lottery for the Year* 1712, are deſired to haſten the Entry of their ſaid Tickets, before the Work of delivering out Orders begins, becauſe that Work being begun, it will not admit of any other Buſineſs to interfere in that Week.

Whereas the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treaſurer hath received a Letter ſigned G. L. dated the 22*d of this Inſtant June; theſe are to give Notice, That if the Perſon who wrote the ſame will attend his Lordſhip at the Treaſury Chambers in Whitehall, about the Matter therein mentioned, he ſhall be kindly received.*

Notice is hereby given by the Directors of the Company of Mine-Adventurers of England, That purſuant to a Reſolution of a General Court of the ſaid Company held the 17*th of this Inſtant June, all ſuch Members of the Company who ſhall on or before the* 24*th of July next pay into the Hands of Mr. Anthony Forty, in Muddiford Court in Fenchurch, London, Twenty Shillings a Share on their reſpective Intereſts in the Stock of the ſaid Company, ſhall be deemed to have made their Payments to the Call appointed by the General Court held the* 19*th of March laſt, although the firſt Payment of the ſaid Call hath not been made on or before the* 26*th of May laſt; but no further time than the* 24*th of July next is allow'd for Payment of the ſaid Call. And Notice is alſo given, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held on Wedneſday the* 1*ſt of July next, at* 10 a Clock in the Forenoon, at Stationers-Hall, London.

Notice is hereby given by the Agent to the Captors, That the Officers and Companies of Her Majeſty's Ships the Kent and Berwick, and the Able and Ordinary Seamen and Marines of Her Majeſty's Ship the Bredah, may, at Mr. Maſter's Houſe on Tower-hill, receive their ſeveral Shares of the Prizes Ruby and Incomparable, viz. the
